Cloud-Stanford Co.'s Reorganization Sale

Offerings this week have been greatly enhanced by the arrival of a large shipment of the finest Men's Suits and Overcoats it has ever been our fortune to show. They're all of the very highest grades and in the present season's models. We placed our orders on them for this season's business, previous to our reorganization plans, and were compelled to accept them. The urgent necessity of realizing immediate cash forces us to place them in this sale.

This offering presents an unusual opportunity of securing your winter clothing wants at most unusual prices.

If you have never worn a Nemo you are thoroughly acquainted with the inconvenience of a Corset that stretches and ultimately losses its shape.

What causes the ordinary Corset to stretch! The cut edges of the material, for they are not properly finished to prevent giving after they are sewed together.

The Nemo Corset does not stretch, because every edge of material is stretched by pressure and then corrugated before it is stitched.

Types of Beauty may change, but the woman whose face is fresh and rose-tinted, whose skin is smooth as a baby's, whose wrinkles are conspienous by their absence, has one kind of beauty most women may possess if they take the trouble to acquire it. It may be acquired in a natural, simple and pleasant fashion, by the use of certain harmless "aids," which the Demonstrator will show and tell you of.

Among them: Riker's Violet Cerate; it is so well known to thousands of satisfied mers that nothing further need be said; it is looked upon as a prime tollet necessity, and those who use it would not be without a jar for several times its value. Price 50c a jar.

Coats by the Hundreds. A Great Saving on Every One

Note: With all the emphasis at our command, we would urge every woman who has a coat to buy, to attend this Friday and Saturday sale. In our day we have had many a fine Coat Sale, but memory fails us in recalling a happier event at this season of the year than this sale.

The above "advice" is as sincere as we ever make it---the only trouble is that it is only advice and may be treated as most "advice" is. However, we would be failing in our obligation to spread the good news of the day not to give it.

Our coat buyer, now in New York, has worked wonders.

He has sent us coats that will make a suit that will out-January January!

Some of them are makers' samples, others are the result of some of the shrewdest buying that we have known.

No sale is made up entirely of TREMENDOUS VALUES.

There are many coats that bring savings even greater than we have listed---you will doubtless find quite a number, the duplicate of which, earlier in the season, were marked a half more than they are now.

So for the economies of the sale.

The styles:

Many of them are lately adopted styles---and in this connection understand clearly there has been no compromise. The style simply had to be RIGHT SMART before a coat was considered. There is not one off style in the lot, no woman is going to buy a coat because it is CHEAP. She will want it for its fine lines, its splendid material, its rich lining---and, in many instances its fur trimmings.

Style---they are wrapped in it!

How is it possible to sell such coats as such reductions? e you are! The sale starts with the opening of the store. Well, it IS possible, and here you are!

$70.00 for $27.56,$33.50

and $35.00 Coats

A wealth of these!

There are pressed plushes, graceful affairs, copies of imported models, broadiatil cloth, Persiana cloth, in black and may. The limings are elegant and coloral, large frog fastenings, collars of some are initation (Coney) mole. $20,00 never did stich service. Three-quarter length, binomo sleeves as a rule.

$25.00 for $37.50, $40.00

and $45.00 Coats

Broadtail eloth coats with fox and siana cloth coats, brocaded velours with skunk and moufflan collars and cuffs, Perrich brocaded and plain satin linings. Some show yokes, others set-in sleeves, others wide kimono sleeves. One unusually smart model is a fussian blouse, the belt is a 6-inch black silk braid. Coats to exclaim over.

$12.50 for $18.50. $19.75 and $21.50 Coats

Persiana cloths and boucles, principally navy and black, self-lined and colored satin lined. Several styles, belted back, set-in sleeves and kimono sleeves, cuffs and collars of plush; three-quarter length, slightly cutaway; one very attractive style has large velvet buttons down length of sleeve.

$15.00 for $22.50. $19.75 and $35.00 Coats

Black and white striped boucles, Persiana cloths in black, boucles in black and oth-ers and others. Choose from half dozen or more styles. One notably fine model has panel back outlined with velve buttons, plush collar and cuffs, brocaded or plain,

Why Should the Taxpayers Use Their Money to Reward Friends of Presidents?

And Why Should the United States Send Snobs Abroad to Amuse Themselves at Public Expense and Play the Toady? The Pindell Case Ought To Be a Useful Lesson.

The people of the country know that sending Ambassadors to foreign countries is nonsense and out of date.

The Ambassador is a messenger boy who takes a cablegram from his government to the representatives of the other government.

from his government to the representatives of the other government.

Our Embassies are maintained in order that candidates for he Presidency MAY OBLIGE THEIR PRIENDS, REPAY POLITICAL FAVORS, OR SHOW APPRECIATION OF FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE.

This particular administration, we say it with regret, has been particularly and unusually guilty in the matter of using public foreign posts and public taxes to reward friends and financial backers of the President.

The case of Mr. Page, sent to London because he happened to be the President's publisher, the man who distributes his books, was bed of Mr. Page, sent to London because he happened to be the President's publisher, the man who distributes his books, was bed and English led" was about the maximum of astinity.

The sending of one man to Vienna, for no reason in the world except that he is married to a very rich woman and made a large contribution to the Wilson campaign fund, was outrageous.

But the worst of all these various transactions was the Pindell case, concerning which the public has been enlightened by a letter written to Mr. Pindell, offering him the Ambassadorahip WITH A STRING ATTACHED TO IT.

We presume that most of our readers have seen that ex-tremely interesting letter written by Senator Lewis, of Illinois, and telling Mr. Pindell upon what terms Mr. Wilson would make Pindell Mr. Pindell was to the Russia. Pindell was told emphatically, first of all, THAT HE MUST REMAIN AMBASSADOR ONE YEAR ONLY.

REMAIN AMBASSADOR ONE YEAR ONLY.

In other words, he would receive the appointment with a string to it. After one year he would be pulled home and then, preumably, some other friend of the Administration, some other original Wilson man, or some other man with a rich wife who could give money to the Wilson campaign would be sent over also to bask in the glory of foreign Ambassadorship.

The letter that Senator Lewis wrote, trivial, amusing, child in and foolish, made perfectly clear the status of the men whom we send to represent this republic at foreign shores.

Pindell was to meet 'aristocrats,' he was even to shake hands with the Car.—If the Car shakes hands.

His daughter was to go into society. He was to HAVE ABSOLUTELY NO WORK TO DO, that was guaranteed in the letter that the Senator sent to him.

ABSOLUTELY NO WORK TO DO; that was guaranteed in the letter that the Senator sent to him.

At the end of the year he was to come back, having been Ambassador to Russia, and then, as the provincial Senator put it, his descendants of the third and fourth generations would brag about having an Ambassador in their ancestry.

Is this not the height of absurdity, unworthy of an intelligent country, criminal spending of the public funds, and a very shameful misuse of power by the President and by his Secretary of State, Mr. Bryan? Neither of them has attempted to deny the Pindell letter.

This is a BUSINESS country, its inhabitants are business

tary or issue.

An in this is a BUSINESS country, its inhabitants are business men, and what we need abroad is FIRST-CLASS BUSINESS REPRESENTATIVES.

The Ambasadorships should be enliminated; the entire stupid system of sending a cable to be handed to a foreign Minister of State by some snob whom we maintain at court should be wiped out.

Our consular service should be improved; trained men should enter the service and be kept there as long as they do their duty properly.

their duty properly.

This business country should be represented by business consuls.

And we should allow Mr. Pindell and Mr. Page and the other collection of gentlemen who want to go abroad and shake hands with aristocrats to do that thing at their own expense, and not at the public expense.
